As C.S. Lewis points out, only by putting the a love for God first could I have any hope for loving others - and in fact, this was a great hope because only God could work all things, every little comment, every interaction, every moment in every heart, to the good of all His children.

First Things First - My Portion in this Life

Endless reflections appear about how life will have been changed when the pandemic finally passes. Life is serious, and we are all moved to share our deepest thoughts with others. But the truth is that not all of us can really grind out deep thoughts day after day. A few in a lifetime is a more reasonable quotient.
