Hello everyone! As I keep saying, Alchemy has been an absolute blast for me and so many decks have had the chance to shine. One of my favorite archetypes that I've been trying to get work for quite awhile is Sacrifice, but for Standard 2022 and Standard so far, it just wasn't getting there for me. Long gone are the days of Cauldron Familiar and Witch's Oven and although it wasn't a fun ...

In the early days of alchemy, the astronomical signs of the planets were also used as alchemical symbols. Then in the centuries of medieval persecution and suppression every alchemist invented his own secret symbols. Charlatans, quacks and cheats took over and alchemy became, along with sorcery and witchcraft, infamous for fraud and extortion.

Alchemy is the practice of using herbs to craft potions and elixirs or using stones and reagents to convert one material into another. In WoW, Alchemy is essential for high level raiding and PvP, as the potions and elixirs are some of the strongest buffs available in the whole game and the resistance potions Alchemists can learn to make are vital for completing certain dungeons and raids.
