The traditional process of exegesis, however, is in only one direction: it comes after the development of the original work and has no impact on it.

However, in the research exegesis, one informs the other. As the research develops, the exegesis records, meaning of the text;

contextualization is the
significance for today.

That is the process of hermeneutics. After that then we moved to the text per se, the

interpretation of the text, and last time we looked at four key

principles of exegesis.

two basic components
in developing a good
sermon or class.

Hermeneutics is a $5
word for interpretation.

It is an extensive area
of study, but in its
simplest use,

interpretation is what happens when one
moves from valid

exegesis to application.

To describe exegesis
does not say how it is done.
