But The jungle Books are so interesting and believable that not for one second did I doubt that the animals could in fact have the conversations as set forth in the book. To me, as the reader, it was perfectly natural to read "animal dialogue", and I found this striking: i.e. that I was hardly even aware that there was anything unusual about ...

This is such a cute book that your kids will be begging you to sing/read over and over again. It is written to go to the tune of "Over in the Meadow" (you can find it on YouTube if you're not familiar with it) and goes through 10 jungle animals and their babies. In addition to being such a catchy tune, this is also a counting book.
